There is much confusion today in our society's understanding of history's oldest institution. Many view marriage as a contractual agreement that can be easily broken. Some look at marriage as a confining prison. Others see it as completely unnecessary, believing that cohabitating and having children do not require marriage. As government courts continue to change the definition, some people are confused as to what marriage really is. You can walk into any bookstore and find a plethora of books that deal with marriage, divorce, and relationships; but how can you know what is right? In the midst of cultural confusion, we can gain a clear understanding of marriage from the Creator Himself. God has given us everything we need to know about marriage in His Word. These messages are for the whole family as we focus on our great God and His design for marriage.
