What we fill our minds with in times of uncertainty will colour the lenses through which such circumstances are viewed. As we've spent more time consuming the news in the last few weeks, a theme that comes up often is the fear and despair that is facing our society as a result of the current crisis. Such responses are normal emotions that all of us have experienced at one time or another. But we don't have to lose heart and turn to worldly remedies. God can help us change the feelings of hopelessness and despair as we focus our minds on the truths of His Word. When tempted to give in to our fears, we need to turn to the Bible and allow God's Spirit to renew our minds and ground our faith. As we meditate on God's Word, we will gain a godly perspective on our current situation, whatever that may be. Some of my favorite Scripture passages which have helped refocus my perspective are Psalm 42 and 2 Corinthians 4. Let me encourage you to spend time this week meditating on these two passages of Scripture. "Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself...comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work." (2 Thessalonians 2:16-17)

REDEEMING THE TIME BY STRENGTHENING MARRIAGE

WRITTEN BY PASTOR MARK
RICHMOND

The pressure cooker of this current situation will bring to surface the contents of the heart. I want to encourage moms and dads to invest in your marriage, work together as a team, and remember that your spouse is not the enemy. Before we can properly address the behaviors of our children, we need to repent of the sin and idols that God has exposed in our own hearts. We cannot model what we are lacking. The apostle Peter offers these encouraging words: "Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust" (2 Pet 1:2-4).

The Lord has equipped us with everything we need for the responsibilities He has given. What is coming to the surface of your heart? How is this season affecting your marriage relationship? When you feel the emotions beginning to boil below the surface, remember that His divine power has given all things that pertain to life and godliness. Stop, ask the Holy Spirit to help your response rather than reacting in the flesh. Confess your sin to the Lord and to your spouse. And remember: you are not alone in your struggles. Reach out to others for prayer and encouragement. We can come out of this difficulty with stronger marriages and families if we will forsake our sin and depend on God.
