Spiritual Growth in 2023

As we look ahead to a new year, the future is unknown to us. No doubt, there will be challenges. There are dangers ahead. Peter ends his second letter with a warning: "Beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked" (2 Pet 3:17). You can't afford to drift spiritually in 2023. Don't let your guard down. Don't be deceived.

After the strong warning of danger, Peter ends on a positive note: "But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Pet 3:18). This is how we can stand firm against adversity. As we grow in the knowledge of Christ, our faith will be strengthened. And for spiritual growth to happen, you must be intentional. Strong faith doesn't happen by accident.

Here is an opportunity for you to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." Beginning Sunday, 8 January, classes for all ages will be starting up again. At 11:00 adults meet for fellowship and interactive Bible study. And at the same time there are classes for children and teens. Families are encouraged to worship together in the 9:30 service and then participate in the groups that meet at 11:00. There is also an adult fellowship group that meets at 9:30. This is a convenient way to participate in corporate worship and small-group Bible study and fellowship. Will you consider joining a group to help grow spiritually in 2023?

Adult Fellowship Group: 1 Corinthians (Room 307)

Adult Fellowship Group: Foundations of the Christian Life (Room 312)

Foundations of the Christian Life

There is a new adult fellowship group starting Sunday, 8 January at 11:00. Each participant will receive a workbook that is biblically accurate yet easy to understand. Class discussion will focus on finding answers in the Bible to foundational questions about the Christian life. This group is ideal for new believers, Christians who have never been disciplined, or those who want to train for discipling others. Here are the topics:

- Salvation: God's Gift to You
- Eternal Security: Your Relationship with God
- Confession: Your Fellowship with God
- Baptism & the Lord's Supper: Your Remembrance of Christ
- The Word of God: God's Communication to You
- Prayer: Your Communication to God
- The Local Church: Your Place of Ministry
- Temptation: Your Struggle with Sin
- The Holy Spirit: God's Presence in You
- Progressive Sanctification: God's Work in You
- Stewardship: Your Gift to God
- Evangelism: Your Ministry to the World
