We welcome Dr. Bruce McAllister as our guest speaker this morning. He is in Alberta to speak at the annual pastors' conference for the Western Canada Baptist Fellowship held in High Level this week. For over four decades, Dr. McAllister trained thousands of young men for pastoral ministry. He currently serves as the director of ministry relations for Gospel Fellowship Association Missions where he oversees church planting and development and assists churches with their staffing needs. He and his wife, Ellen, have four grown children and several grandchildren.
