Dear friends in Christ,

Ministry: We've met with several people from our church this past week. We continue the discipleship with "Nt". As she is the only believer in her circles, she feels pressure from the world via her friends. It was a joy to see her bring a friend to church this week. Please pray for God to work in her life, for her to grow in her faith. We continue the study on Friday nights with S&L, who have not yet bowed the knee before Christ. Amy has also continued the study with Joa, who has not yet repented of her sins either.

Coworkers' return: We are grateful for our coworkers' return late May. I now preach one Sunday per month and teach three Wednesday evening studies per month, and continue to participate in evangelism and counselling weekly, along with other administrative responsibilities.

Class: The intensive class I taught in a church in Alicante, Biblical Narrative Hermeneutics, went well. It was 4 hours of teaching and a Q&A time.

Health: Amy has had an MS relapse. Her first one was the one that caused the diagnosis, two years ago. We are grateful for two years without a relapse, and pray that the symptoms will soon fade. Sophia has received further treatment for her chollazion, and it is doing much better. We're praying it will completely disappear.

School year: Amy has just finished homeschooling Olivia. It is good to have a summer break.

Building: Our church has rented a storefront for 10 years. We now are in the process of buying a more permanent meeting location, which costs 180,000 dollars. We have someone in the USA that is willing to provide an interest free mortgage, but we could still use some help with the cost. If you desire to help with the cost, please let me know.

As always, we're grateful for your prayers.

Grace and Peace,
Jeremie, Amy, and the kids
