MISSIONARY UPDATE

THE STINSONS OTTAWA

(Excerpts from their recent prayer letter.)

Greetings praying friends,

Although it got off to a rocky start, winter is now in full swing here in Ottawa, and with it comes many fruitful opportunities. We have found that for many of our refugee friends, winter is a daunting, and often depressing time of year. One of the ways we have been able to connect with and serve the international community in our city is by introducing them to many winter activities to help reduce the boredom, fear, and lack of social activity that often plagues our newest residents. In the past we have been able to organize ice fishing outings, learn to skate activities at city hall, Christmas parties, ski trips, and general information sessions about how to cope with winter. Please pray that God will continue to give opportunities to serve newcomers in this way, and that these would translate into solid redemptive relationships and gospel-centered conversations in the future.

Our monthly men's breakfasts have been gaining momentum, with January's breakfast being our largest one yet. These men (a mix of believers and unbelievers alike) love getting together and often ask us when the next outing will be. Pray that we will be able to encourage these men to gather not only to fill their bellies once a month, but also to regularly be fed from God's word.

Please pray for our ministry team, as we continue to seek the Lord's will about future plans for the church plant. We are meeting this month with a couple of other pastors to see if there is any potential of church partnerships in the area, or anything we can learn from some of the gospel teaching ministries around us. While Ottawa has a dearth of churches for a city of over 1,000,000 people, we still have been able to find a handful of gospel preaching ministries in the area, and we want to see how God would want us to work alongside them for the sake of the gospel. Pray for wisdom, like-mindedness, and a clear understanding of how the Lord may be leading us to proceed.

Finally, we would ask that you would pray that amidst all our efforts to share the truth and see believers gathered into a self-sustaining local church, we would see souls saved and growing in the Lord. Since moving here in 2016, we have noticed that Ottawa is a city of endless gospel opportunities, but unfortunately, very little fruit. Hearts are hard, the culture is very much opposed to our message, and it seems that the Lord wants to spend most of our time and efforts in this field tilling soil rather than harvesting fruit. Pray that by God's grace, and in his providential, perfect time, we would see live changed in this needy city.
