Anniversary Sunday

1996 CELEBRATING 2024

Today we reflect on the Lord's goodness to Meadowlands Baptist Church over the last 28 years. In March of 1996, two small struggling congregations merged to start a new church in "the little white building" at the corner of 23rd Avenue & 17th Street (our present location). Christ promised to build His church (Matt 16:18), and we praise Him for His work in this corner of the world. Throughout the years God has used a faithful group of members to proclaim His truth in Edmonton and spread His gospel through sending and supporting church planters and missionaries. May the Lord be glorified as we obey Him today and seek His will for the future.
