SERVING WITH KEMNDA ORPHAN MINISTRIES IN CHAD, AFRICA

Obed was born in Koumra, Chad to a pastor's family. He accepted Christ as his Saviour as a teenager and was baptized at the age of 18. Lacy was born in Nova Scotia, Canada to a pastor's family as well. She also grew up in church and was saved as a four-year-old child. She was baptized at the age of 11. God led Obed and Lacy together and they married in Chad in 2008. In 2009 they started their family in Canada and sought to prepare themselves for future service in Chad. God has given them four children: Israel, Jemuel, Suzy and Reuben. Over the years both Obed and Lacy felt a growing burden to return to Chad to reach out in love and with the hope of the gospel to vulnerable and orphaned children in Chad. In 2018 they formed a non-profit organization in Koumra to take in both orphaned babies and street kids, giving them a home and an education. The organization is currently run in Chad by Obed's family and hired workers while the Berasngars raise support enabling them to serve full-time in Chad and to expand the ministry. They have constantly found that as they put God first and seek to follow him, he provides for their needs and for the needs of the children he sends to them for care.
