Anniversary Sunday

8 March 2026

In the mid-1990s, the Lord graciously brought together the small congregations of Faithway Baptist Church of St. Albert and Northland Baptist Church of south Edmonton. This new assembly adopted the name Meadowlands Baptist Church in March 1996, marking the beginning of a new chapter of gospel ministry at the corner of 23rd Avenue and 17th Street.

In August 1997, God led missionary Jim Tillotson to become pastor of Meadowlands. By God's grace, the church family grew both spiritually and numerically. In 2000, Meadowlands assumed full support of Pastor Jim and his family, and continued growth soon required additional pastors, deacons, staff, and expanded facilities. For 18 years, Jim and Joan faithfully ministered alongside their family at Meadowlands, until the Lord called Jim to serve as president of Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa.

As we celebrate 30 years, we rejoice in the Lord's unfailing guidance and give thanks for what He has done, confident that He who has been faithful will continue His work among us.
